DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. Figures 19 and 20 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

2. Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure. The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1 and 3-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kuma et al. (5,775,121).

5. Kuma et al. '121 teach a heat exchanger comprising alternating aluminum or resinous flat and corrugated sheets (1,2) that form perpendicular channels for air flow and heat exchange. Surfaces of the exchanger can be coated with particles of silica gel (see figures 2A, 2B, col. 3, lines 26-65, col. 8, lines 30-34).
6. Claims 1, 3 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Imamura (4,391,616).
7. Imamura '616 teaches a humidity exchanger comprising a stack of air flow passages (12c) perpendicular with cooling air passages (11c), wherein the passages (12c) are formed by corrugated adsorptive sheets (12) with flat separation sheets and the cooling passages are formed by resinous corrugated sheets (11) with flat separation sheets (11b) (see figures 4-6, col. 5, line 16 to col. 6, line 35).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

8. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

9. Claims 6 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over any one of Kuma et al. '121 or Imamura '616 in view of the Japanese reference (JP 08-313186).
10. Any one of Kuma et al. '121 or Imamura '616 discloses all of the limitations of the claims except that the cooling element walls are formed as a trapezoidally corrugated plate or by vertically arranged partition walls. JP '186 discloses that the partition walls in a heat exchanger body can be formed with a trapezoidal, serrate, chopping sea, or sine wave shape (see paragraph 32, orally translated at the Patent Office). It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to choose any wall shape or arrangement that is known to facilitate heat transfer between two fluids, based on cost, availability, and performance of the exchanger materials.

Allowable Subject Matter

11. Claims 9-13 are allowed.
12. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record including the references listed on the foreign search reports fails to disclose or suggest a motivation for using the water-proofing means in combination with the other recited elements.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

13. Claims 2 and 8 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

14. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The additional references listed on the attached PTO-892 form disclose heat exchanger arrangements.
